June 20, 1887.

My Dear May,

Taking all the circumstances into consideration I have concluded to accept your kind offer to mail my list, and I enclose $2 on postage account. If my list proves ~~to~~ more than 100, there may be still more required on this score. Let me know the number, and I will send further. what is required in stamps.

On my list you will find the name of Gen. or Hon. J. L. Chamberlain, Brunswick

Maine! Please change the address to "The Alpine, Cor. Broadway and 32d St., New York". Also add two names, as follows:

Rev. Henry T. Cheever,
Worcester, Mass.
Joseph A. Dugdale,
Mount Pleasant,
Henry Co., Iowa.

I have written to Mr. Rice to send me 10 copies by mail to Galpin & Co. You and Frank J. G. can doubtless find a market for the rest of the 250 copies. If I should have a call for more, I will buy them of Mr.

Rice. I don't want you and F. J. G. to assume the whole expense of printing, &c. Unless you choose to call upon other friends for help, I want you to let me pay my share.

In great haste,

Oliver Johnson.
